From the plane

Though from the plane all seems still
The reality on earth, is war continual
For childhood dreams no more compliant
For giants turned into tyrants

Never again this
No more lapses
Until osmosis

Never again this
The symbiosis
A world of pink roses

Although from the sky everything is white
Life with valour puts up a fight
For childhood dreams no more compliant
For giants turned into tyrants

Never again this
No more lapses
Until osmosis

Never again this
The symbiosis
A world of pink roses

In my dreams, everything goes round like a wheel
But in the night, we kill each other for real
For childhood dreams no more compliant
For giants turned into tyrants

Never again this
No more lapses
Until osmosis

Never again this
The symbiosis
A world of pink roses
