In Transit

Humanist pilgrimages in search of Love
What will be the nature of the months, the days
Shorelines passing by
No shift in my images

Living in the residence of Love
Ignoring the clang of my expiring visa
Love in a short-term contract
Without leaving it to chance and time

A labor contract in time bands
A visa for Love in itineraries
And far away the idea of happening to meet you
And far away the idea of happening to meet you
And far away the idea of happening to meet you

From the Beautiful Province to France
My gypsy memory is thinking of you
So little time elapsed
Already so many questions to ask

Without assumptions, with life, I travel
From Montreal to Quebec, Alma, Manhattan Beach
I say it is much richer to love people
Than to admire places and monuments

A labor contract in time bands
A visa for Love in itineraries
And far away the idea of happening to meet you
And far away the idea of happening to meet you
And far away the idea of happening to meet you
