Meet me

We should hold hands
Without fear of reprimand
We should finally combine
Without worrying about what's down the line

Let's stop reproaching
Let's try approaching
Let's look at the charm
Wipe those tears that often disarm

If you find yourself, if you find yourself
Join me, come back to me
If you find yourself, Oh Oh Oh
Join me, come back to me

Flowers should be better treasured
Without values making them withered
We should choose our enjoyment
Based only on our heart's contentment

Let's stop reproaching
Let's try approaching
Let's look at the charm
Wipe those tears that often disarm

If you find yourself, if you find yourself
Join me, come back to me
If you find yourself, Oh Oh Oh
Join me, come back to me

We should unite tomorrow
