Palavas-les-Flots

Of tomorrow's dreams almost nothing stands
Except a few kids with their blanket in their hands

It only took one night for the summer to be over
And only a shower of rain for boredom to recover

A Palavas les Flots, At Palavas tears flow
At Palavas under water, At Palavas it's too much

Right next to the water, the rascally smirks
In my head the chorus of those endless nights

It only took one night for the summer to be over
And only a shower of rain for boredom to recover

A Palavas les Flots, At Palavas tears flow
At Palavas under water, At Palavas it's too much

*I catch myself thinking about it in the bureau
Hear it in the noise of the metro
As in an old film scenario
From the Goldween Metro
It was too much in Palavas les Flots*

A Palavas les Flots, At Palavas tears flow
At Palavas under water, At Palavas it's too much
