Un flocon d'hiver

A winter landscape with snow-covered trees and a house. The scene is captured in a cool, blue-toned light, likely during the 'blue hour' of dawn or dusk. In the foreground, a snow-covered path leads towards a small, snow-laden house. The trees are mostly bare, with their intricate branches silhouetted against the bright sky. A small, ornate metal structure, possibly a garden bench or table, is visible in the lower right. The overall mood is serene and quiet.
